

Brief Profile of Anand Deshpande

- Graduate of Electronics & Telecom Engineering of Pune University in 1992
- Working in Automotive Research Association of India, Pune since August 1992.
- Currently working as Senior Deputy Director and Head of Automotive Electronics Department & ARAI's Centre of Excellence on E-mobility
- Responsible for development and evaluation of automotive electronic embedded systems for EMI/EMC, environmental conditions, performance etc.
- Responsible for electric vehicle development, testing, evaluation, policy / standard development
- Worked on development of first prototype of electronic engine management system for passenger car in 1992-93
- Worked on development of number of test instrumentation development systems / software for automotive industry
- Led establishment of state-of-art EMI/EMC test facility and evaluation test facility for automotive electronic systems at ARAI
- Member of Society of Automotive Engineers, Society of EMC Engineers